

guftagoo report

TALK WITH ALUMNI

LOCATION: KUMAON HOSTEL, IIT DELHI.

DATE:17-09-2017

BRIEF: Sprezza and alumni association of IIT delhi organized a talk session among the current students and some of the alumni of IIT delhi.

INVITEES: 1) Abhinav Bhardwaj(Director-MEPL)
2) Tanpreet Singh (EA- Swaraj Division)
3) Jagmal Singh (CTO-Paisabazaar.com)
4) Vikas Mishra(EX-senior engineer-IOCL)
5) M.S. Bawa(Deputy General Manager-AIR INDIA)

SUMMARY: Talk started with the an introduction by the senior most person over there Mr. M.S.Bawa, during his talk he shared about his journey after he graduated from IIT delhi. He has been serving air india since last 30 years and retired after serving with closure of major deals for Air India. Tanpreet Singh shared his association with IIM Lucknow and Mahindra. Vikas Mishra has introduced himself with his journey of up-down with IOCL, Mckinsey, Shell and his own venture of consulting. Jagmal Singh introduced his close association with venue Kumaon and his past startups. He shared his responsibilities as CTO in PaisaBazaar.com and CarDekho. Abhinav Bhardwaj, shared his journey in construction and his role played in construction of Chandigarh Airport. He also shared the landmarks constructed by Manomav

After introduction, questions were asked regarding Salary Packages, Opportunity in Core, Relevance of Courses in Engineering and more. All questions were promptly answered by Panel. They highlighted the gap which has built in industry because of expectation of fresher. The changes from Old time to new time was also discussed. Students clarified their doubts regarding higher studies in India and Abroad while understanding the opportunity of Internship.

The next phase of talk was one-o-one question to the panel which is related to entracnt opportunity in core industry. Student has asked Jagmal for preferences of doing MS in software development over doing job in Finance. Similar questions were asked regarding salary packages in core industry. Panel explained the relevance of perks which is not actually a direct component of salary but plays a role in enjoying the life with family and work.

In last phase, mementoes were distributed to the panel members by organizing committee of Sprenza as an honor. The session was closed formally with thanks for participation to all and house remained open for one to one discussion. Panel discussed the reality of industry and expectation with students. It was an informative and interactive session between alumni and students.

PHOTOS:

